

Spring 2017 - Online Video course! JST 3402

Who are the Jewish people and what is their impact on the world today? Though representing only a tiny sliver of the population, the Jews have exerted an extraordinary influence on our culture. This semester we will take a tour of Jewish communities all over the world during the past 2,000 years. From the ancient Near East, across Europe and Asia, and on to the modern state of Israel, get ready for an unforgettable experience. Taught entirely through a series of weekly video episodes, created at UCF's state-of-the-art television facility, in which your professor dramatizes a host of historical characters, this is one online course you don't want to miss!

Co-taught by Rabbi Sanford Olshansky and Dr. Kenneth Hanson
